  - Festival fee for devotees staying in temple is 15 € per day for devotees from ex-Yu and 20 € for other devotees, prasadam included
  - Festival fee for those staying outside of the temple is 10 € per day for devotees from ex-YU and 15 € per day for other devotees, prasadam included.
2. Parking is allowed only in the assigned parking lots, in most places you will have to buy a parking ticket during the weekday (from 8.00 am to 18.00 pm). Do not park elsewhere or the crane will probably take away your car. Also don't block with your car other parked cars, especially be careful with our neighbours.
3. Please do not bring into temple room your own instruments if not agreed with the person in charge. We would like to respect the volume limits in order to keep our ears undamaged.
4. Our desire is to show respect to our neighbours and to not disturb them. So please don't chant on the street in front of temple, also do not speak loudly there, especially not before 7am and not late in the evening after 10pm.
5. You are most welcome to perform some service during your stay in the temple. Such festivals are a great opportunity to get many blessings of vaisnavas by serving them. Coordinators for services are Saumya datri dd and Jagannathasuta das. More info at Reception desk.
6. We have arranged for an AC system in the temple room, so leave opening and closing of the windows to devotees in charge for this (Devananda Nitai das).
